

CoStar Group, Inc. is an American commercial real estate information and marketing provider with headquarters in Washington, DC. Founded in 1987, The company has approximately 2,500 employees. Revenue: 712 million USD (2015). With 15 major products from software and applications to real estate management.

Max Peker monitors and provides analysis on commercial real estate and economic trends for CoStar as the Market Analyst for the Richmond, Hampton Roads, and Washington, D.C. markets, providing actionable insights to professionals across the CRE industry. He is responsible for writing, forecasting, and maintaining CoStar Market Analytics' market and submarket reports by leveraging CoStar's vast inventory of data collected by the industry's leading research organization. Max regularly speaks at industry events to discuss his findings, most recently as the featured moderator at CapRate Events' Mid-Atlantic Multifamily Investment Summit in September 2016.